

Photo by Tom Koch

Maj. Gen. Randall Horn raises money for his "bail" when he was recently "arrested" for Arrest for Youth. His bail was set at $1,000 and he raised $1,809 for the Mountainside YMCA. More than $16,000 was raised for the event that will help disadvantaged youths.

NEWS

You Can Use

TRICARE offers benefits to National Guard members

Demobilized members of the reserve component and their dependents, who were activated in support of a contingency operation are eligible for the TRICARE transitional health care demonstration project.

Family members of reserve component members ordered to active duty for more than 30 days under 10 U.S.C. or 32 U.S.C. are eligible for TRICARE.

Activated reservists/National Guard members should check with their reserve centers or unit commanding officers to make sure that all information about themselves and their family members is current and accurate in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) data base.

You can get more information about TRICARE by writing to the TRICARE Management Activity, 16401 E. Centretch Pkwy., Aurora, CO 80011-9043.

You can also get information from the TRICARE web site:
www.tricare.osd.mil.

NG Tuition Scholarship program

Applications for the NM National Guard Tuition Scholarship program are now being accepted by the education Services Office.

For more information, contact Capt. Laumbach at 474-1245 or Christine Garcia at 474-1233. Information also available at

<http://milpo.nm.ngb.army.mil>

Civil Engineer offer

The 150th Civil Engineer Squadron is selling golf balls bearing the TACO logo.

Pricing is as follows: (1) Sleeve for $5 or (1) Box of 12 for $16. For more information, contact 1Lt. Chris Baca at 846-7440.

Building custodian responsibilities

Now, more than ever, it is important that all buildings be checked on a daily basis to ensure the safety of the personnel who work inside. All buildings inside the 150th Fighter Wing area of responsibility need to be checked every morning for any signs of tampering or unidentified items.

Responsibilities also include securing and locking all containers that are stored outside of buildings.

Be sure that all buildings are securely locked at the end of each duty day. For more information, contact CMSgt. Timothy Hall, security forces manager for the 150th Security Forces Squadron.

Your being honored!

The Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce wants to honor you at the annual Armed Forces Banquet, May 17.

Three individuals will be selected to attend the banquet - Free of charge.

Simply log onto the 150th FW Intranet website - <http://150fw> - to download a short form to nominate an individual and return the form to Maj. Sunnigard-Couse no later than April 7.

If you are interested in attending, Maj. Couse will also take names to purchase a table of ten for the Banquet, same deadline.

Vehicle parking rules

During Force Protection Bravo all parked vehicles must maintain a 25-meter (82 ft) distance from any inhabited building. Do not park in a parking stall that has the blue-hashed marks cutting across it.